Figure 8-7 Auto Assembly Plants in Ontario

Note that in spring 2014, the 407 opened to Harmony Road in Oshawa.

Caption: Figure 8-7 Auto assembly plants in Ontario. While a system of high-speed highways is valuable for most manufacturers, it is vital for auto assembly plants relying on JIT delivery of parts. The Ontario government built Highway 407 to help overcome the uncertainty of traffic jams on existing highways through the core of the GTA.
